Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Note: This is in response to amendment filed 10/02/2007 and T.D. has made of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 20-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hui (U.S. 6,589,267).

Hui discloses the claimed invention in figures 8-11, a pressure source (234) for supplying a pressure to pressurize a pressure cuff (208); a pressure port (248) allowing pressure into said pressure cuff (208); a source valve (248) interposed between said pressure source (234) and said pressure port (248); an occlusion sensing means for detecting blood flow past a pressure cuff (208); a processor (202) instructs said source valve (248) to increase the pressure in the pressure cuff (208) when the occlusion sensing detects blood flow past the pressure cuff (208); when flow is detected past the pressure cuff (208), incrementally increase the pressure in the pressure cuff (208) until flow is no longer detected.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment filed 10/02/2007 has been fully considered but they are not persuasive because claim 20 has been amended to broaden the scope of the claim. Claim 20 is no longer allowable as indicated in previous office action and is moot in view of the new ground of rejection.

1. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a):

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
